Invitation From Pastor Paul

James Houston in his book, 'The Heart's Desire,' writes: "In medieval Christian thought, the idea of learning by heart...meant the re-orientation of one's life."¹ How does one go about that? One of the needed elements in attaining that re-orientation is humility. What is humility? "Humility is essentially being open to other people, and above all, open to God's ways and thoughts."²

One of the means of discovering or being open to the thoughts of others, particularly the thoughts and ways of God is to take a course this Winter. Every Wednesday night, during this coming Winter season, LSC provides classes for Adults, Youth and Children. The classes being offer will hopefully challenge you to learn by heart, possibly a new re-orientation to how you are living your life. Join with us, beginning January 11th, in a journey of discovery.

There are two commands that most believers seem to struggle with. The first, called the great commission, is given to every believer to 'make disciples.' How do we go about that? The second is that we need to become informed enough to give an answer for the hope that is within us when asked. This course is designed to inspire, instruct and impart the kind of information that will equip you to address those issues in your life. I believe that every believer can have the joy of being a disciple-maker.

“But you are my witnesses, O Israel!” says the LORD. “You are my servant. You have been chosen to know me, believe in me, and understand that I alone am God. There is no other God—there never has been, and there never will be.” (Isaiah 43:10)

Believing God - a study on experiencing a fresh EXPLOSION of faith. This in-depth Women's Bible Study is based on Isaiah 43:10 which explores what it means not only "to believe in God" but "to believe Him." The bride of Jesus Christ in our generation is nearly paralyzed by unbelief. God is calling His bride to a fresh and lavish anointing of faith. Through studying the lives of Abraham, Moses, and others as examples of persons who believed God, Beth encourages women to deepen their own trust in God and receive a fresh word from Him.
