

Israel

Things to bring

Light jacket

Comfy walking shoes

Adapter (two small round prongs)

Swimsuit (Dead Sea) Bring an old swimsuit as the salt is hard on fabric

Water shoes (Dead Sea & Hezekiah's wet tunnel)

Head lamp (wet tunnel)

Capri's or shorts (wet tunnel)

Umbrella

2 Photocopies of passport (one to submit with application plus one for Pastor Paul)

Small backpack or bag (for water and essentials for day trip)

Notebook if you like to journal events or thoughts

Sleep aid if you have problems with time change.

Medical Insurance

Book or movie suggestions

Masada - book or movie – strongly recommended for context or what we will see and hear

Exodus by Leon Uris – movie with Paul Newman

The Holy Land Revealed – teaching video series

The Source by James Michener

The Mind of Terror by Tass Saada

Once an Arafat Man by Tass Saada

In Our Hands – movie

Possible extra expenses

Lunches (all but one day $10-15 USD) ALL other meals provided in Israel

Group photo from Mount of Olives ($10-15 USD)

Baptism in Jordan River ($10 USD – includes robe and towel; or $25 if you would like a video included))

Money for tips for guide, driver, serving staff at hotels $11 USD per day per person. ($7 USD for guide, $3 USD for driver, $1 USD for hotel staff including bell hop and servers.) This is per day per person. The $$ for the hotel staff will be collected by Paul and Patty the night before we leave each hotel. The $$ for the guide and driver will be collected on our last evening in Israel.